Industrial Interaction was held on 11/06/2013, at CICU Complex, Focal Point, Ludhiana with Sh. Ravinder Singh, IAS, Chairman and Dr. Babu Ram, Member Secretary, PPCB to highlight the benefits of new PPCB Policy.

Sh. Avtar Singh, General Secretary, welcomed Sh. Ravinder Singh and Dr. Babu Ram and thanked Industrial leaders and Industrialists for participating in this event. He said that this new PPCB Policy is indeed hassle free and Industry friendly. Sh. Upkar Singh, joint Secretary, requested that number of schemes of UNIDO, WTO and Central Pollution Control Board should be channelized for forming clusters.

Sh. Babu Ram, Member Secretary highlighted the main advantages of new policy regarding Consent Management Authorization. This policy is of 198 pages and is a real online policy which is offered by PPCB only.

Sh. Darshan Dabar from Knitwear Industry, Sh. K.K. Garg from Induction Furnish Association, Sh. Manjit Singh Khalsa, Chairman, UCPMA, Sh. Joginder Pal Jain from Electroplating Association, Sh. Avtar Singh, CEO, LETS, Sh. T.R. Mishra from Boiler Manufacturer Association, Sh. Charanjit Singh Vishavkarma, General Secretary, LETS, Sh. Ashok Makkar from Dyeing Industry Association and Sh. Gurmeet Singh Kular, President, UCPMA raised the issues related to their respective industries

Sh. Ravinder Singh, Chairman, PPCB, replied on the issues raised by various speakers and assured them of positive actions on all these issues. He further requested the industrialists to follow the norms for the benefit of society and also appealed to take benefits of online registration. He further highlighted that there is a time bound mechanism for giving consent. On demand he assured that Voluntary Discloser Scheme will be launched very shortly in which there will be no punitive penalty. On finding a unit adhering to CPCB norms further checking frequency will be reduced on these units. He announced that training on use of online registration will be provided by PPCB officials at CICU Skill Development Center, Gill Road, Ludhiana for a period of about two months and all industrialists should take benefit of this facility.

While presenting vote of thanks, Sh. S.B. Singh, Publicity Secretary, CICU thanked Sh.
